SELF-MASTERY COACH

Hello! I'm Ron Baker

Self-Mastery Coach

Since Ron was quite young, he has felt that so much more is possible than what most of us have been taught. His search for those answers led him to discover ways we all can tap more of our individual potential — creating lives of meaning, value and purpose.

Ron created a metaphysical school of self-mastery in NYC, where he has spent 25 years nurturing thousands of individuals into an awakening of their deeper potentials. Since 1997, Ron has also led 15 worldwide meditation events from sacred sites, including the Great Pyramid of Egypt and the ancient temples of Tibet ... joining millions of people around the world.

In 2017, Ron realized it was time to take his message out into the world in a bigger way. In a short time he has been featured in The Miami Herald, Star Tribune, and CNBC, as well as making several appearances on Astrology Hub.

Sample Workshops + Conversations

As a self-mastery coach, Ron brings a mix of inspirational information and practical tools that help people create lives they trust will get better and better and better.

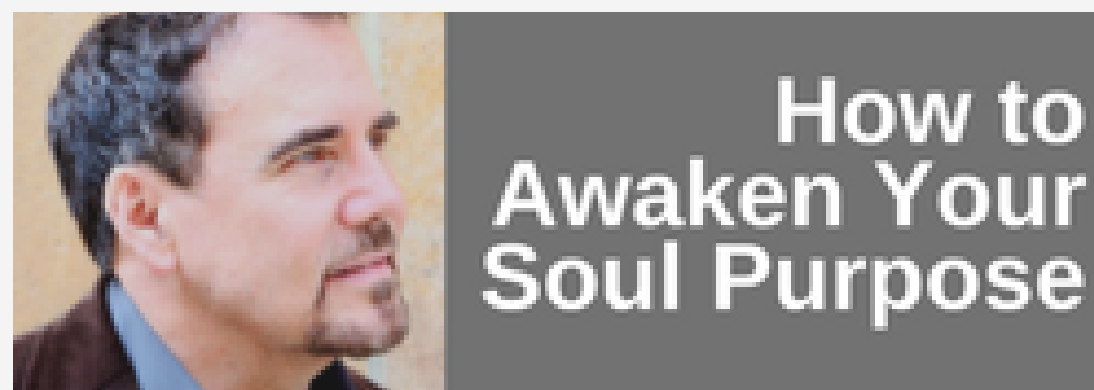

This nurturing approach to life is quite effective with individuals, couples and groups. Ron believes in experiential transformation, creating interesting ways to apply the empowering information.

Ron is interested in addressing the issues that matter most to your audience and will focus his work so they engage and inspire your group. Whether it is a 30-60 minute talk or a full-day workshop or a weekend retreat, Ron can craft something that fits your group's needs.

Here are a few conversations Ron has had with audiences around the globe:

There are 9 nurturing experiences we all seek more than any other thing. They also provide a foundation to achieve deep fulfillment and peace in every stage of our lives.

Many people feel the need to tap into a sense of solid purpose in their lives. What they don't all realize is how accessible the energy of their soul purpose really is for all of us.

We live in an unprecedented time of change and challenge that is part of our move into the next level of collective potential. Understanding that enables us with a more fulfilling sense of self and gives our individual lives profound meaning.
